Tobitha Willard was born Aug. 1, 1839, died March 30, 1903. She professed a hope in Christ and joined the Baptist church 1876. She was a model of Christian love and religious piety. May the bereft husband and the three motherless children that are left meet this dear wife and mother in a world of bliss.

Ethel Jones (whose maiden name was Childers) was born 1870, died Oct. 11, 1903. She was a consistent member of the church and was an admirer of true christianity. She was often heard speak of the Lord and his goodness and about getting to her heavenly home,

She served said church as deaconess until her death.

"Tis hard to break the tender cord,

When love has bound the heart.

Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words—

We must forever part.

Dearest loved one, we must lay thee

In the peaceful grave's embrace,

But thy memory will be cherished

Till we see thy heavenly face."

J. M. Brown, committee.

Jefferson Gentry was born April 21, 1820; died Oct. 6, 1903. He was married to Miss Bettie Rankins Dec. 14, 1842. This union was blessed with one child, who sleeps in some far away and (to us) unknown battle field. He joined the church at Cool Springs and lived a consistent member of the same until the organization of the Primitive Association, he was a constitutional member of said association. He lived a model christian life. To know him, was to love him.

This dear old brother and soldier too,

Laid aside his staff and marched through

The unseen gates of the far off shore,

To live with Jesus forever more.

Young friends, when my grave you pass by—

Think as you are now, so once was I,

Though proud, hale or sinful you be,

You're soon going to eternity.

Sarah Collins was born in the year 1837, died Oct. 1901. She joined Elkin Valley church in Aug. 1896 and was prompt to fill her seat on church days. She leaves a husband to mourn, has paid the debt, conquered the last enemy and entered the shores of eternity. Thanks be to God for christian mothers.

He joined Roaring River Baptist church on Friday after the fourth Saturday in Aug. 1886, where he lived a consistent member until God saw fit to command the pendulum of life to stand still. He was prompt to attend his church meetings, served his church as secretary for about ten years, and possessed a strong desire for the welfare and upbuilding of the church. He was afflicted for nearly four years before his death, but he manifested much fortitude in bearing his afflictions.

Dear wife, we fought the battles of life hand-in-hand,

You are bereft—I in the promise land

May God bless you and the dear little ones

And guide you all to this heavenly home.

V. M. Teague was born July 2, 1830, died July 12, 1903. He professed faith in Christ in 1868, and lived an upright life until his death. By his demise, Fair View church, loses a good member, sister Teague loses a good husband; the children loses a good father, but we trust our loss is his eternal gain.

A voice we loved is still,

A place is vacant in our home

Which never can be filled.

dren, 8 are living, five of whom have a hope in Christ. His last days were days of severe suffering, but when the final hour came, and the wheels of life were still, the spirit was wafted away to the farther shores of the River of Death. He did, as he often sang, "Lay down the Bible and go home."

Millie Absher (whose maiden name was Jennings) was born June 28, 1823, died Nov. 8, 1902. She was married to Wm. Absher Sept. 6, 1847. This union was blessed with 8 children.
